

Corn Can't Grow – Ryan Pfeifer

<Riff> <Riff>

C

Tonight we ain't got no Bonnie Rose moonshine, I done drank my last cold Busch Light

F

C

Baby if your down I still got something you might like

G

C

I'll be there a quarter past 7 with the redneck heaven on ice

G

C

You ain't gotta get dressed up, just jump on up inside

<Chorus>

C

And we'll go rollin' down a backroad sittin' real nice

F

C

Sippin that Tennessee whiskey tonight cause it ain't ran dry

F

And if you let me love you till tomorrow, I'm gonna love you to and fro

C

G

We can make love sweet love till the corn can't grow

<Riff> <Riff>

That barn right there is where I had my first kiss, square body Chevy granddaddy swore he'd fix

Damn the luck man, naw he never did

But if I had it my way girl, I'd give it to our kids

<Chorus>

<Riff> <Riff>

<Bridge> Pt 1 Drums Only

Till the stars start shaking from the love we're making, till the songs on the radio just stop playing

<Pt 2 Crash in on 'Love'>

F

C

Love you babe till the corn can't grow

F

G

I'm gonna love you babe <stop>

<Chorus> Drum roll in

Rollin' down a back road sittin' real nice

Sippin that Tennessee whiskey tonight cause it ain't ran dry

And if you let me love you till tomorrow, I'm gonna love you to and fro

We can make love sweet love till the corn can't grow

And if you let me love you till tomorrow, I'm gonna love you to and fro

We can make love sweet love.... till the corn can't grow
